Inner West Outreach services boosted

June 16, 2009

Housing Minister David Borger, today announced that Housing NSW is extending its outreach service in the inner west to be more accessible to people.

“Housing NSW tenants, prospective clients, the homeless and in particular the elderly and disabled will benefit from this service as there is no disabled access at the Broadway office,” Mr Borger said.

“Three locations in the inner west will commence operation in a move to take our services to the people.

“Commencing Monday 11 May and Thursday 14 May 2009 the Housing NSW Outreach Services at the Newtown Neighbourhood Centre will be extended from once monthly to twice a week. The times of operation will be in the afternoon from 2.00pm to 4.30pm every Monday and Thursday. The address is 1 Bedford Street, Newtown.

“Commencing Friday 15 May 2009 a weekly Outreach Service will commence at the Marrickville Town Hall from 9.30am to 4.30pm. The address is 303 Marrickville Road, Marrickville.

“On 29 April 2009 an Outreach Service commenced in Rozelle at the Rozelle Neighbourhood Centre. This is run monthly on the last Wednesday of the month from 1pm to 4pm. The address is 665a Darling Street Rozelle.

“Staff from the Broadway Tenancy and Inner West Assessment Teams will be in attendance to answer all general inquiries where possible, assist with new applications and current tenancy issues.

“These services will be the same as if clients were attending any Housing NSW Office.

“Housing NSW is committed to improving its services for people most in need and this initiative will greatly assist people in the inner west of Sydney,” added Mr Borger.
